

AMBER N. WILLIAMS, ESQ.

Associate Attorney

Amber N. Williams, Esq. is an attorney at Nishad Khan P.L. who handles a variety of matters, including Civil Litigation, Probate Administration, and Estate Planning. She handles matters ranging from eviction of a tenant to commercial litigation with numerous parties; consultation and drafting of all estate planning documents; Pre-litigations representation and negotiation of matters from Homeowners Associations Disputes to Mortgage Foreclosure, and almost everything in between. Her responsibilities include representing both individuals and business owners throughout the litigation process while being mindful of the stress and expense litigation has on her clients.

Amber has lived and worked in Central Florida since moving here in 2004 to attend the University of Central Florida. She previously worked for a firm in Orlando for over ten years where she focused on Family Law, Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Administration and Guardianship. She also handled plaintiff litigation for Personal Injury and Workers Compensation, representation before the Social Security Administration, Civil Appeals, and representation before an Arbitration Board and other administrative bodies.
